

Be the difference See the difference

Help shape maternity services in Swansea Bay

Do you want to help ensure that Swansea Bay maternity and neonatal services are excellent?

The Independent Review of Maternity and Neonatal Services at Swansea Bay University Health Board is looking for patient and family representatives to contribute as members and co-chairs in the Family and Community Voices Steering Group.

Can you offer between 2 - 4 hours per month* to attend an online meeting to ensure the lived experiences of families are central to the Review?

To find out more please email the Review team at:
swanseamaternityreview@nicheconsult.co.uk

Reasonable expenses will be paid, and support given.*

