

Join our focus groups to help influence the future of maternity and neonatal services in Swansea Bay

The Independent Review of Maternity and Neonatal Services at Swansea Bay University Health Board will be hosting two focus groups where you can share your experiences of these services, including what went well, and what didn't. Your feedback will help influence the future of maternity and neonatal services in Swansea Bay. There will also be an opportunity to ask questions.

A face-to-face focus group will be held on Thursday 6 March between 9.30am – 10.30am at The Phoenix Centre, Townhill, Swansea, SA1 6PH.

If you would like to attend, please register here:
